

our focus:

Becoming and making life-long followers of Jesus. We break this down into six essential qualities, the Six Marks of a Disciple:

A Heart for Christ Alone

Jesus, as the one-and-only Son of God, becomes the priority in all of life; we worship him with all our heart, mind, soul, and strength.

A Mind Transformed by the Word

We progressively come to view the world as God views it, setting aside the world's values as our minds are continually renewed by God's Word.

Arms of Love

As the hands and feet of Jesus, we come alongside others in need, extend compassion, welcome the stranger, and live in a community of mutual care with other disciples.

Knees for Prayer

Our posture before God is one of continual dependence, trusting deeply that God is in charge of everything, conversing always about what he and we are accomplishing together.

A Voice to Speak the Good News

We embrace the call to share Jesus with those who do not know him, leading them to faith, answering questions, and providing hope and encouragement for those who already know the truth.

A Spirit of Servanthood and Stewardship

We live as servants of God and each other, doing good through the gifts the Spirit has given us, living generously and simply, and seeking to bring about the fullest expression of God's rule in our culture.

help! I'm new!

Don't worry, no one is going to single you out or ask you to stand and give your name. Step into a worship service of your choice when you're ready and relax. Here is what happens...

Singing

We usually sing songs to God each weekend. Feel free to have a seat anytime. Just be comfortable.

Welcome & Prayer

We'll briefly tell you about a few things that are happening around here. Then the person making the announcements will also engage us in an extended time of prayer, wrapping up with all of us saying The Lord's Prayer (see order of worship for details).

Giving

For those who value the mission of this place and are learning to give, this is a time to give back to God a portion of what he's given to us.

Message

One of the pastors or members of staff will speak for 25-30 minutes about applying God's truths to life's experiences. There is also a children's message during the Saturday evening service and 11 am service on Sunday.

Joshua 1:1-18

Let go and let God? God helps him who helps himself? The world is filled with trite and often contradictory advice. When Joshua faced a daunting task — leading God's people into the land he had given them — he needed to understand both his role and God's. So do we. This weekend we will unpack what this means from a historical perspective and how it applies to our lives today.

order of worship

> Opening Music

> Call to Worship

> Worship Through Song & Scripture

> The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors; and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever, Amen.

Ecclesiastes Study

Sundays | 9:30 am | Room 201

Have you ever wondered, "What is the meaning of life?"

The wisest man in the Old Testament pondered and answered this question in the book of Ecclesiastes. Ecclesiastes is a book full of wisdom, puts the pleasures of this world in proper perspective, and explains why it is that as kids, we laid in bed wondering what "forever" means, and as adults, we secretly question if our life is purposeless. Join us for this thought-provoking study to find out if your life is a "vanity of vanities" or something eternally more significant.
