

FREEDOM AND TEMPTATION

I CORINTHIANS 10

January 28, 2010

1) God wants us to tell our stories of His in our lives.

2) A dissolves in water and melts at the smell of fire.

3) God's men and women are always

4) Our very places of strength may become the vessel to

5) John Calvin said that " God is not the author of evil, but whatever evil God has allowed, He has already determined to redeem - through offering of now, andlater."

6) (A question to answer for yourself, "What makes me grumble?")

7) " is permissible, but NOT everything is"

8) God writes His will on the of all those who love Him, and desire to serve Him.

9) We may fool each other, and even sometimes fool ourselves, but in journey, we can't fool the
